

FEEL THE PRIVILEGE & ENJOY THE AMBIANCE

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

To All Our Valued Customers,

The founding story of our company started with the desire to provide you and your loved ones with the feeling of privilege and the care you deserve, with a professional, devoted and creative team that have a high understanding of service in the tourism and event industry.

For the LaBiance Family, you have always been the main character that has the driving force for our brand success, which is shaped on the basis of this professional passion and love of high service of our employees.

Because you are the one who knows best what choosing us means; your needs will be met with a exclusive service concept designed specially for you based on the concept of "immortalizing the moment" in carefully selected, glamorous and uniquely beautiful places.

In this regard, we are also the ones who know best that when our valued customers, who are the main subject of our story, are satisfied with every aspect of our services, the trust in the LaBiance will be strengthened, and this will reinforce our respected position among the pioneers of the industry while increasing our recognition.

As a matter of fact, we believe that the charm that brings us together with you is this quest for "receiving the best quality service" and "being the best in the industry".

The equivalent of this understanding that forms the basis of our company doctrine, for each member of the LaBiance Family is "your presence, our existence".

Therefore, we thank you for making us meaningful with your presence, and reiterate our corporate commitment that we will always strive to be worthy of our reason for existence.
